Mission of the Month: Crosslinks Jirka & Keira Kralovi are sponsored by Crosslinks to work in the Czech Republic. Now like the UK it is a secular country and genuine Bible Christians are a tiny minority. We at St Michael's are linked to that minority by Crosslinks. In particular we have a bond with the Kralovis. They live in Olomouc (pronounced Olomooosh). Jirka & Keira understand that the Lord Jesus Christ has led them, so to get to know some of the students of the town, they tell them about the Lord Jesus Christ. Students study during the day and stay up late at night. As people are finishing work at around 6.00pm Jirka is beginning his. Often into late evening he is talking about Jesus Christ. Under God their efforts have met with success. So much so that this summer Jirka brought a group of them to London for basic training in how to handle the Bible. But that is not all. The Kralovis are also heavily involved in their local church. It is new – so new it is called a 'church plant'.

Please pray...that students in Olomouc will turn to the Lord Jesus Christ; that they will grow into mature and life-long faithful Christians; that God will give physical, mental and spiritual strength to the Kralovis; that like us, our sisters & brothers in Olomouc will go from strength to strength in their Christian life and that we and they will see friends and neighbours turning to Jesus Christ.

Anyone who is 18-30 years is warmly invited to join us on Mon 11th Sep, 7.30pm in the small hall of Church House for an "ice cream factory". It will be an opportunity to update one another on what you will be doing over the coming year and to explore the possibility of starting an 18-30s group. Please speak to Nigel, Jo or Rachel GS if you have any questions.

First Priority Prayer Meeting will be on Tuesday 12th September, 8-9pm in the small hall of Church House. There is much to pray about for our nation, our world and for churches. All are welcome to join us.
